Visitors coming to Lloyd's should be aware of the security and dress code policies. Please note that the Lloyd's building is not open, generally, to the public.

Security measures for business visitors:

- All visitors should bring identification such as a passport, driving licence, credit card or other photo ID with them.
- All bags are searched upon entry.
- Visitors should hand their Lloyd's pass back to their host or a security guard when leaving the building.

Dress code:

- Lloyd's operates a dress code for all visitors - suits or smart jackets, trousers and ties for men, smart business style for women.
